

Glo - - - - - ry to the Fa - ther and to the Son and to the Ho - ly Spir - - - it.
Thou hast walked ac - cord - ing to thy name, O George the sol - - - dier; for, in car - ry - ing the cross of Christ on thy shoul - der, thou didst plough th earth, made
bar - ren by th er - - - rors of Sa - tan;
and hav - ing up - root - ed the thorns of hea - then wor - ship thou didst plant the vine of Or - - - - - tho - dox faith.

Where - fore, thou dost bud heal - - - ing - - - to be - liev - - - - - - - - - ers - - - in all th in - hab - it - - - ed - - - world, and hav - ing be - come a faith - ful hus - band - man of the Trin - - - - i - - - - - ty, we be - seech - - - thee to in - ter - cede for the safe - ty of - - - the - - - world - - - and the sal - va - tion of our - - - souls.

Then sing "Both Now" and the Theotokion according to the Pentecostarion (see the Liturgical Guide).

Following the Entrance, chant "Gladsome Light" and the Daily Prokeimenon.

Then read the Old Testament Readings:

- 1) Isaiah 43:9-14;
- 2) Wisdom of Solomon 3:1-9
- 3) Wisdom of Solomon 5:15-6:3

After the usual petitions, continue with the Aposticha, as on the following pages.