

June 11th

The Holy Apostles Bartholomew and Barnabas

Stichera at the Praises

Byzantine Mode 4
Special Melody: As one valiant

Adapted by Dn. John El Massih

- 1) Thou wast sent in - to all the world as a glit - ter - ing
- 2) Thou be - cam - est a pure a - bode of th All - ho - ly
- 3) As the clouds did ye sprin - kle down the di - vine and ce -

beam of light by the Sun of Glo - ry, Christ Trin - i - ty, be - ing made to shine with the
- les - tial rain e - ven to th ut - ter - most

Je - sus, our true God, to drive a - way the thick - vir - tues' ra - di - ance; and thou, re - ceiv - ing His re - gions of th earth; ye rich - ly wa - tered the

-shroud - ing mist of - - vil and mis - er - y, light from Him with - in thy pure heart, dost send souls of the be - liev - ers with grace di - vine,

June 11th - The Holy Apostles Bartholomew & Barnabas - Stichera at the Praises - 2

5

while en - light - en - ing men's hearts, which were dark - ened by un - to all the farth - est parts a far - shin - ing en - smoth - er - ing the wick - ed tares which had sprout - ed from 6

ig - no - rance and the pas - sions' sway, O A - pos - tle Bar -
-light - en - ment bright - er than the sun, thus, O God - cho - sen god - less - ness; and ye made men's souls to bear fruit__ in a -

7

-thol - o - mew, di - vine - ly wise and god - ly - mind - ed Bar - na - bas, en - light - en - ing those sit - ting in the -bun - dance. For this cause, we all now hon - or you with her - ald, who art all - bless - ed in ver - y truth.

8

dark - ness and gloom - y shad - ow of ig - no - rance.
prais - es, O blest A - pos - tles of Christ the Lord.