

Pentecostarion
All Saints Sunday
Stichera at the Praises

Byzantine Mode 4
Special Melody: As one valiant

Adapted by Dn. John El Massih

1) Since they wel - comed His suf - fer - ings, all the Saints that are
2) With the proph - ets, let us ex - tol th A - pos - tles; and
3) They that made Heav - en of th earth with the bright-ness that in His earth hath the Lord made won - drous, who with the just, all the sa - cred mar - tyrs, the vir - tues shed; they that im - i - tat - ed the in their flesh re - ceived His wounds and Pas - sion; and teach - ers of the Church, the fer - vent wom - en who will - ing death of Christ; they that have walked on that fair a - dorned there - with, they are no - ta - bly strove in both as - cet - ics' and mar - tyrs' strife, path that doth pro - vide im - mor - tal - i - ty;

All Saints Sunday - Stichera at the Praises - 2 5

con - se - crat - ed un - to Him with di - vine___ beau - ties let the mul - ti - tude of Saints and the right - eous in they that with the sur - ger - y of di - vine___ grace have of all kinds. Let us sing their praise as un - with - er - ing all their ranks sa - cred - ly be praised with di - vine___ songs and cleared a - way all our mor - tal ills; they that no - bly con -

6

7

flow - ers, as the Church - 's stars that nev - er err or hymns, for they in - her - it - ed the King - dom in the
 - tend - ed with a sin - gle soul through - out the world's four

8

wan - der, as will - ing vic - tims of sac - ri - fice.
high - est, and they are dwell - ers of Par - a - dise.
 quar - ters: Let all the mar - tyrs be praised in song.