

Slow

Glo - - ry to the Fa - ther and to the Son and to the Ho - - ly Spir - it, both now and ev - - er and un - to a - ges of a - ges. A - men.
THEOTOKION
O pure The - o - to - - kos, thou wast known as a moth - er in a su - per - nat - u - ral way and thou didst re - main a vir - gin in an in - de - scrib - a - ble and in - com - pre - hen - si - ble man - - ner. Thus came a - bout the won - der of thy birth - giv - ing, in - ef - fa - ble for the tongue, in that thy con - cep - tion ap - peared daz - zling to the mind and thy birth - giv - ing be - yond all un - der - stand - ing, for where God doth will, he o - ver - com - eth the or - der of na - - ture. There - fore, since we know thee as The - o - to - kos, we be - sech thee cease - less - ly. In - ter - cede then for the sal - va - tion of our souls.

To Gladsome Light --&gt;&gt;