Special melody: Thou who wast called from on high

Adapted by Dn. John El Massih

1) Thou who wast right - ly named Mer - ci - ful in All Things,
2) Thou who wast giv - en the grace of cures and heal - ings,
3) From im - ma - te - ri - al well-springs of sal - va - tion, when thou hadst spread o - ver all thy ten - der love for man, when thou hadst pre - ferred a - bove all else, true pi - e - ty, thou for - ev - er draw - est up the grace of god - ly cures, show - ing thy care and so - lic - i - tude by free - ly grant - ing in hold - ing fast to the god - li - ness thy moth - er taught thee, which thou a - bun - dant - ly bring - est forth and dost dis - trib - ute the heal - ing both of the bod - y and the soul, and right - ly hāt - ing thy fa - ther's god - less - ness, to those who come to thee, O most blest of God.

then was Pan - te - lei - mon made thy right and wor - thy name, then was that di - vine il - lu - mi - na - tion giv - en thee Now, with grace di - vine, il - lu - mine them that faith - ful - ly be - stowed, O Mar - tyr, in rec - om - pense for ho - ly vir - tue by thē A - byss of En - light - en - ment, the Light - be - stow - er, keep thine all - sa - cred and glo - ri - ous and shin - ing feast - day;

and as the wage of thy god - ly pi - e - ty;
the Word of God, Who doth give the great - est gifts; em - ploy the mer - cy for which thou hast been named,

and thou hast shown thy - self to be a crowned for with di - vine fore - knowl - edge He fore - saw and show that kind - ness which doth im - i - tate and in - vin - ci - ble sol - dier of Christ our God.

thē il - lus - tri - ous splen - dor of god - ly life, thē un - speak - a - ble kind - ness of God Him - self;

Do thou there - fore en - treat Him which, O wise Pan - te - lei - mon, which im - plore may be grant - ed to en - light - en and to save our souls. thou didst show forth in the sight of all.

 un - to all who sing thy praise in hymns.
